ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER 08-002-CJ

Adoption of a Schedule of Court Fees

Section 1. Purpose

- A. Tribal Court has the inherent authority and duty to assess fees for the use of the Tribal Court, pursuant to Article 10, Section 7(c), of the Tribal Constitution.
- B. Court fees exist to insure that persons accessing the Court understand the significance of using the Court and its processes.
- C. The initiation of court action and use of the Court has a cost to the community as a whole.
- D. Court fees should be significant enough in amount to discourage frivolous and unnecessary use of the Court process, but not so costly as to discourage persons with legitimate matters access to the Court.

Section 2. Order

The attached Schedule of Court Fees and other costs is hereby adopted.
